Grandma: Of course, sweetheart! What do you want to know?

Tommy: Well, first of all, where were you born?

Grandma: I was born in a small village in Co. Sligo called Enniscrone.

Tommy: What was the village like?

Grandma: It was green and natural. There were a lot of farms around and everyone was very friendly.

Tommy: Where did you go to primary school?

Grandma: There was only one school in the village so I went there. It was 30 minutes from our house.

Tommy: What was your primary school like?

Grandma: It was small and there were no computers or books! Just desks and a black board.

Tommy: Why weren't there any books?

Grandma: Well because people were poor, darling.

Tommy: Oh, well, what about high school? Who was your favourite teacher at high school?

Grandma: Oh my favourite teacher was Ms. Thompson. She was a wonderful history teacher. She was so clever and her classes were so much fun!

Tommy: Really! History?

Grandma: Yes dear, history!

Tommy: So what was your favourite subject at school?

Grandma: Well I loved History but my favourite subject was always English literature. That is the reason I became a librarian. I love to read books!

Tommy: What about after school? What were your favourite free time activities?

Grandma: Well, there wasn't any TV in our house, so most of the time we were outdoors. My favourite activities were walking, swimming and dancing.

Tommy: Ok grandma, thank you!

Grandma: Is that all?

Tommy: That's enough for now!

- Reading : An informal email about a birthday party; A short activity about a life story
- Writing : Writing about a past event
- Grammar : Irregular past tense
- Vocabulary : Birthdays, holidays and life events

1 Did you ever throw a big party? Where was the event held? Who did you invite?

Hiç büyük bir parti verdiniz mi? Nerede gerçekleşti? Kimleri davet ettiniz?

I THREW A PARTY AND EVERYBODY CAME!

The image shows a screenshot of an email interface. At the top, there is a pink banner with the text "I THREW A PARTY AND EVERYBODY CAME!". Below this, the email content is displayed. The email is addressed to "me, Pete (2)" and has the subject "my awesome party!". The text of the email is as follows:

Hi Pete,

How are you? How is life in Spain? I heard that you like it there. I knew you would!

Everything is great here. School is fine but we had exams last month. I thought I passed them all but I got my results last week and I failed Maths. But I spoke to my teacher and he said he could help me.

Thank you for the birthday card! I'm sorry you missed my party. It was amazing! Everyone at college came to it! It was on the terrace of the Tallest hotel so the views were fantastic! I wore my new fabulous shirt and cool trainers that my mom bought for me. There was a DJ and he played really cool music, he even taught me how to spin the decks! His decks were custom-made and really cool! Everyone danced all night. Their moves were awesome. I felt so happy! I saw your ex-girlfriend at the party, she looked great! Nobody left the party before it ended. Unfortunately, I lost my wallet on the way home but I didn't have much money in it anyway.

P.S. I met your cousin last week, we went to a football match together. He said hello!

Well, I better get back to study! Write to me soon!
John

The email interface includes a "Send" button at the bottom right. To the right of the email content, there is a small photograph of a group of people at a party, smiling and holding drinks.

Metni okuyun ve soruları cevaplayın.

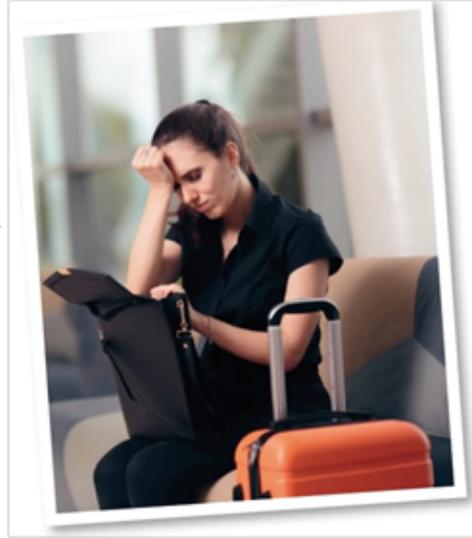

Melis had a terrible day yesterday. It was the day of her vacation to Dubai but it was a nightmare. She left the house at 10 o'clock in the morning and caught a taxi to the airport.

Melis went to the check-in with her luggage. When the man who worked for the airline asked for her passport, Melis became very upset. Where was her passport? Melis realized she didn't have her passport with her. What a disaster! She jumped back into the taxi and told the driver to take her home. The driver drove quickly and Melis arrived back at her house in twenty minutes.

She ran into the house and started looking. She looked in the kitchen, but it wasn't there. She looked in her office, but it wasn't there. Finally, she found her passport on the bedside table and left the house again. Where was the taxi? It wasn't there. "I don't believe it. The taxi left!" she shouted. She ran down the street and looked for another taxi. After a few minutes, Melis found another taxi and told the driver to take her to the airport as quickly as possible.

The traffic on the roads was very bad and, unfortunately, Melis' taxi arrived at the airport late. Her plane left for Dubai at 11.30 and Melis missed it. She was very sad and went to speak to the airline. They promised to get her a seat on a different flight and Melis went home in another taxi to wait.

Banksy¹ (be) the alias of a famous street artist. He² (be) famous for his controversial and political artwork that can be seen on walls in different cities around the world. Banksy's identity is still unknown but people believe that he³ (be) born in Bristol in England around 1974. He⁴ (work) as a graffiti artist since the 1990s. Back then he⁵ (paint) walls around Bristol and London. Banksy used to work freehand but now he⁶ (use) stencils because he⁷ (need) to work faster so that he isn't caught by the police and he can keep his identity a secret.

A lot of Banksy's artwork⁸ (make) comments about today's capitalist society. One of Banksy's famous pieces is called 'Show me the Monet'. In this picture, Banksy⁹ (recreate) the famous painting by Claude Monet called 'Bridge over a Pond of Waterlilies' (1899). In Monet's painting, there is a natural and peaceful scene of a garden pond with green grass and flowers. In Banksy's version, he¹⁰ (add) two shopping trolleys and a traffic cone to the pond to show his anger about pollution and people's extreme shopping habits.

Banksy's work¹¹ (become) very popular around the world. Although he criticizes capitalism, his work currently¹² (sell) for huge amounts of money. In October 2018, at an auction in London, one of Banksy's pictures, 'Girl with a Ribbon',¹³ (sell) for over 1 million pounds. Immediately after the sale, the picture started to self-destruct. Half the picture was shredded. Banksy later¹⁴ (post) a video of the event on Instagram. He said that the shredder was secretly¹⁵ (build) into the picture in case it ever¹⁶ (go) on auction.

7.1. Swift Look Unit 7

- Speaking : Talking about shopping habits and preferences
- Reading : A short reading about clothes and a longer reading about shopping habits in different countries
- Writing : Filling out an online checkout screen
- Grammar : Polite requests
- Vocabulary : Clothes and shopping

LET'S SHOP 'TIL WE DROP!

1 Do you like to go shopping? What are your favorite stores? Do you go shopping with your family?

Alışverişe çıkmayı sever misiniz? Favori mağazalarınız hangileri? Ailenizle alışverişe çıkar mısınız?

2 Read about Sena's favorite designer.

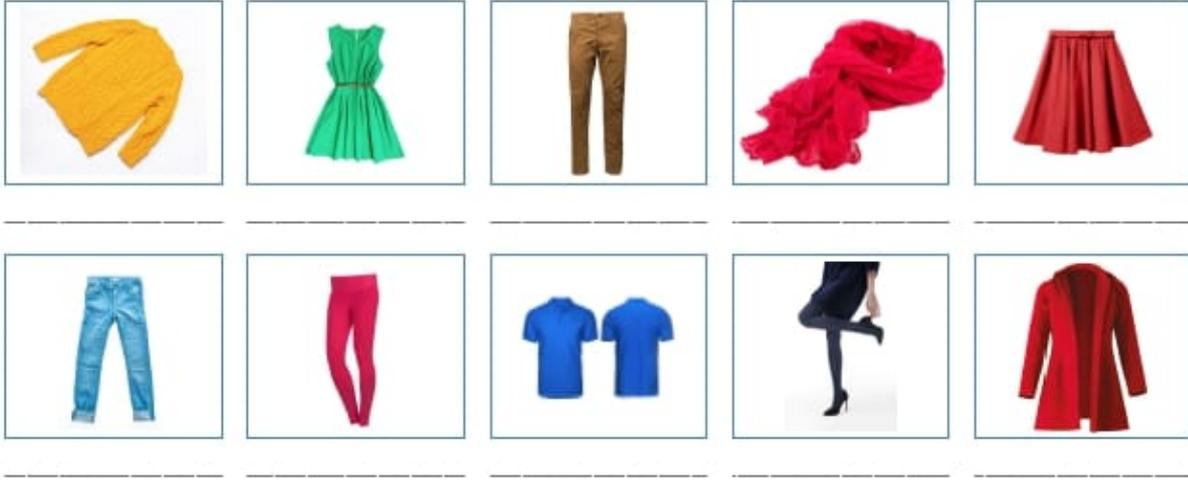

Sena'nın favori moda tasarımcısı ile ilgili metni okuyun.

My favorite designer is Miray Tekin. She designs the most beautiful clothes. She makes dresses and skirts from cotton. They are so bright and colorful. She makes denim jeans for men and for women. All the girls at my school want to wear her jeans. The boys do too, but they'll never tell. She designs winter coats, but they are too expensive for me. I do love her scarves, though, they are made from the most beautiful silk. Her jumpers are made from wool or cashmere and they are just perfect. She makes trousers and shirts for businessmen and women, but I don't wear those because I don't have a job. She doesn't make things like tights or leggings, but I don't care because I can get them cheaper from other places.

3 Fill in the blanks with the words in bold.

Metindeki kalın yazılmış kelimelerle boşlukları doldurun.

4 Match one fabric type to a style of clothing. There is more than one right answer.

Kumaş türünü giyim tarzıyla eşleştirin. Birden fazla doğru cevap mümkün.

Trousers

Cotton T-shirts

Silk Jackets

Denim Jeans

Wool Sweatshirts

Linen Cardigans

Shorts

5 Discuss your answers with a partner and give an example. "I saw a pair of denim shorts in a shop yesterday."

Yanıtlarınızı bir arkadaşınızla tartışın ve bir örnek verin. "Dün bir dükkanda bir çift kot şort gördüm."

6 What kind of things do you enjoy shopping for? What kind of questions do you ask in a store? What kind of questions do people ask you? How do you usually pay when you go shopping?

Ne tür alışverişlerden hoşlanırsınız? Bir mağazada ne tür sorular soruyorsunuz? İnsanlar size ne tür sorular soruyor? Alışverişte genellikle nasıl ödeme yaparsınız?

7 Look at the dialogue between Sema and the shop assistant. Match the questions and the answers. Say who asks each question: shop assistant or Sema.

Sema ve mağaza asistanı arasındaki diyaloga bakın. Soruları ve cevapları eşleştirin. Her soruyu kimin sorduğunu söyleyin: tezgâhtar veya Sema.

1. Would you like to pay by cash or card?
 - a. They are on the second floor.
 - b. You can return your item within thirty days with your receipt.
2. Where are the fitting rooms?
 - c. By card thank you.
3. Have you got this in size small?
 - d. Yes, the colour looks great on you! But it doesn't fit very well. You should try a smaller size.
4. What is your return policy?
 - e. Not right now, I'm just looking!
5. Can I have a receipt for that?
 - f. Yes of course, here is your receipt. Have a good day!
6. Can I help you with anything?
 - g. No, we don't have that size in stock but maybe you could try our online store.
7. Excuse me! Do you think this suits me?

8 Look at the questions again and put them in the correct order to make a dialogue.

Sorulara tekrar bakın ve diyalog kurmak için doğru sıraya koyun.

9 With your partner, practice saying the dialogue. You may add extra questions and answers if you wish.

Arkadaşınızla diyalogu pratik yapın. İsterseniz ilave sorular ve cevaplar ekleyebilirsiniz.

10 What do you buy online? What are your favorite websites for online shopping? What are some good things about online shopping? What are some bad things?

İnternette ne satın alıyorsunuz? Online alışveriş için en sevdiğiniz web siteleri hangileri? Online alışverişin iyi ve kötü yönleri nelerdir?

11 Look at the online shopping website. Fill in the blanks on the checkout screens.

Online alışveriş sitesine bakın. Ödeme ekranlarındaki boşlukları doldurun.

- Left Sidebar: A 'SORT' dropdown menu and a 'Sort by' section with radio buttons for 'Price - low to high' (checked), 'Price - high to low', 'Brand', 'Style', 'Size', 'Color', and 'Popular'. A 'Price' section is also visible at the bottom.
- Central Main Area: A promotional banner at the top reads '20% off your first order use code BUYNOW'. Below the banner is a 'Shipping Address' form with fields for 'Full Name', 'Address', 'City / State', 'Zip Code', and 'Phone Number'. To the right is a 'Billing Information' form with fields for 'Name on card', 'Card Number', 'Expiration Date', and 'CVC Number'. A checkbox at the bottom asks 'Tick the box if address same as shipping address'.
- Right Sidebar: A 'SHOPPING CART' section with a 'Checkout' button. Below it is a 'Checkout' summary with fields for 'Item', 'Price', and a list of items (1, 2, 3, 4). A 'Discount code' field and a 'Total' field are also present. A 'Checkout' button is at the bottom.

7.2. Self Study

CITY LIGHTS

Istanbul

With one foot in Europe and the other in Asia, people of Istanbul live and work on two continents. Their shopping habits reflect this as well. For food, they generally visit local street markets. These street markets are open once a week and the local people can buy fresh fruits and vegetables depending on the season. For their daily shopping, Istanbulians prefer either the small groceries around the corner or discount chain stores. The same applies to shopping for clothing. Turkey is heaven for clothing as the local manufacturers supply a great variety of styles in many colors and fabrics, so, people can choose either to stroll around main streets in chain stores as well as local shops or gather in big shopping malls. The shopping malls provide everything all in one place, like big department stores and supermarkets. People can find many different types of shops and goods for every taste and budget there. Thus, more and more people prefer to combine shopping for food and clothing by visiting those huge shopping malls.

London

In London, people are often so busy that they don't have time to do shopping for food to cook at home. They'll often buy 'ready-made' meals. These are meals in a box or another container that are frozen and then you cook them in a microwave. They are quick and easy and popular. You can even buy microwave burgers! Some people do shopping for food on the weekends when they will buy food for home. They will do shopping in a supermarket and will usually buy lots of frozen vegetables and meats - not everything, but a lot. For clothes, high street shopping is common. People will buy clothes from major shop outlets. Vintage shops are also popular for people who like the style. In London, and in other places in England, there are lots of vintage stores and people sometimes buy their clothes there. Charity shops are shops, where the money spent by the customers goes to charity groups for people or animals and they often sell clothes which have been donated by people.

Portland

When people shop for food in Portland, they have a lot of different options. There are a lot of natural food stores, regular grocery stores, and foreign markets. There are Mexican, Thai, Korean, Japanese, Vietnamese, and Ethiopian shops. You can sometimes find much cheaper staple foods at those shops, but summer is really special. In the summer, there are dozens of farmer's markets all over the city. At the farmer's markets people buy produce directly from the farmers and meats from the people who raised the animals. Most of the products are organic and all natural. Shopping for clothes is also a special experience. You can go to small shops that sell clothing from only one designer and sometimes the designers will make clothing just for you. There are lots of small independent stores and lots of people prefer those over department stores because the clothes are higher quality and more unique.

9. How Do You Feel?

9.1. Swift Look Unit 9

- Speaking : About feelings and experiences
- Reading : About a professional surfer
- Writing : Reacting to social media; Describing abilities; Using intensifiers; Using adverbs and adjectives
- Grammar : -ed / - ing adjectives; Adjectives & adverbs; Intensifiers
- Vocabulary : Talking about feelings; Describing experiences

1 Talk to a partner. Look at the activities below. Which one is your favourite? How do they make you feel when you are doing them?

Bir arkadaşınızla konuşun. Aşağıdaki etkinliklere bakın. Hangisi sizin favoriniz? Bunları yaparken kendinizi nasıl hissediyorsunuz?

1. Watching football
2. Reading books
3. Playing video games
4. Studying English
5. Doing exercise
6. Going to work

2 Look at the eight sentences below. Which sentences describe things? Which ones describe feelings?

Aşağıdaki sekiz cümleye bakın. Hangi cümleler şeyleri tarif eder? Hangileri duyguları tanımlar?

The lesson was boring, so I fell asleep.
The book was confusing.
There was a shocking accident last night.
The trip from Melbourne was very tiring.

4. This play is so boring / bored! Let's go!
5. This map is really confusing / confused. Can you help me?
6. The comedian was really amusing / amused. We laughed a lot.
7. The holiday was fun but really exhausting / exhausted!
8. I was really frightening / frightened when I saw the lion!
9. I'm sorry but I can't go to the match. I'm completely exhausting / exhausted.
10. We're going to Amsterdam next week! It's so exciting / excited!
11. I hate long car journeys, I'm always really boring / bored.
12. She looked very confusing / confused when I showed her the maths problem.

5 Look at these social media statuses. How do you think they feel? Write a response.

Aşağıdaki sosyal medya durumlarına bakın. Sizce nasıl hissediyorlar? Bir yanıt yazın.

Intensifiers tell you something about an adjective.
For example: My father is a hard worker. How hard does he work? He works very hard.

8 Find the intensifiers in the text above and put them in order in the box below.

Yukarıdaki metindeki pekiştiricileri bulun ve sıraya koyun.

Intensifiers
1.	_____

Neyi iyi yaparsın? Neyi iyi yapamazsın? Yeteneklerinizi tanımlayın.

That's Good to KNOW

Mind your language.

- Quite can have different meanings.
 - In American English, it means only 'a lot'.
 - In British English, it can mean 'some, a lot or not at all' depending on context.
- In America, a 'mean' person is unkind, but in the UK a mean person is someone who doesn't like to spend money, or a bad person.
- 'Seriously' can be used as an intensifier that also means 'very'.

ALIŞTIRMA 7

My name is Carly Smith and I'm a professional surfer from Hawaii. My father was a ¹ successful / successfully surfer and he taught me how to surf when I was four years old. I was already a really ² good / well swimmer, so I learned how to surf very ³ fast / fastly. But of course, I wasn't very ⁴ good / well at surfing at first. I surfed quite ⁵ bad / badly for a few years until I started to take it more ⁶ serious / seriously. After that, I trained every day and ⁷ quickly / quick became more skilled at it. I entered and won my first competition when I was eleven years old. I felt so ⁸ happy / happily that I knew I wanted to be a professional surfer. I think surfing is the best feeling in the world. Sometimes you need to wait ⁹ patient / patiently for hours for a swell to come but when it does, it is always worth the wait. Last year I opened my own surfing school in my hometown. So far, we have over one hundred students so I'm a little ¹⁰ busy / busily these days. The students are all so ¹¹ enthusiastic / enthusiastically but they are not very ¹² skillful / skillfully yet. - Vocabulary : Friends and places; Describing character; Describing cities; Useful phrases

1 Who is your best friend? What are they like? Are you similar or different?

En iyi arkadaşın kim? Dış görünüşü nasıl? Benzer misiniz veya farklı mısınız?

2 Read the text and fill in the blanks with the words below.

Metni okuyun ve boşlukları aşağıdaki kelimelerle doldurun.

never got since sweetest unstylish always more believe

My best friend's name is Melike. We've known each other ¹ we were children. When we were in primary school and middle school, we were inseparable. We ate lunch together, we studied together, we played together. She is the nicest, ² person I know. She's tall and she's ³ long brown hair. She's the same age as me, twenty years old. Melike ⁴ wears the cutest clothes so I take her shopping with me. I am so ⁵ She's really innocent though. Sometimes people take advantage of her. She'll pay for anyone's lunch if they ask, even if they can pay for it themselves. She'd give you the shirt off her back if you asked her to, although no one ever has. She's much ⁶ confident than I am and she's so brave. She went skydiving last year, and didn't bat an eyelash. She wasn't scared, she just put on her parachute and jumped. I was supposed to go too, but I chickened out. I was way too scared and actually threw up during the orientation. She's not like her sister at all. Her sister, Duygu, is bossy and mean. She even tells their mom what to do. I couldn't ⁷ it when I saw it, but it's true. Duygu ⁸ shares anything with anyone. One thing I can't understand is that Duygu was so popular in high school and Melike wasn't.

3 Look up the words and phrases from the text above, then use them in sentences about your life.

Metni okuyun ve cümleleri doğru (T) veya yanlış (F) olarak işaretleyin.

Next week, my best friend Gary and I are going on holiday together. It's the first time we will go on holiday together and I'm a bit nervous. Gary and I have known each other for a long time, but we are quite different. Gary isn't as adventurous as me, and he might not enjoy exploring all the different places that I want to go to. We are going to Thailand and one of the ways to travel around the country is by using little minibuses between towns. Gary is taller than me and I know he won't be as comfortable as me when we're travelling around. This isn't a big problem for me, but Gary complains more than me and I don't want to listen to his complaining all the time. It's interesting because Gary actually travelled a lot but he usually goes to typical tourist countries, like

Spain and Greece so he is better than me about organising everything so that will be useful. I hope that we'll be ok when we travel together!

Adjective Comparative form Superlative form

Hiç farklı bir şehirde tur yaptınız mı? Nereye gittiniz? Ne yaptınız?

2. Jamie and Cansu are on the same bus to Cappadocia. They are talking about their plans for their trip. Read the dialogue between them and fill in the missing verbs.

Jamie ve Cansu Kapadokya yolunda aynı otobüsteler seyahat planları hakkında konuşuyorlar. Aralarındaki diyalogu okuyun ve eksik fiilleri doldurun.

Cansu: Hi, good evening.
Jamie: Good evening to you too!
Cansu: Is this your first time going to Cappadocia?
Jamie: Yes, it is! I'm so excited!
Cansu: Are you going to ¹ in a cave hotel?
Jamie: Yes, I am! It's called Fairy Lights cave hotel.
Cansu: Oh, how strange, me too.
Jamie: Cool! Have you been to Cappadocia before?
Cansu: Yes, once but I didn't get to see everything. Last year I went on the green tour, so tomorrow I'm going to ² on the red tour.
Jamie: Oh really! I'm going to go on the green tour tomorrow.
Cansu: Great! I think you are going to ³ it! I did! Which tour company are you going with?
Jamie: They're called Oz tours. They are going to ⁴ me at 9 in the morning. First, we are going to see the underground city Derinkuyu. Then, we are going to hike through Ihlara valley. Then, for the last stop we're going to ⁵ Selime Monastery.
Cansu: Sounds great. Are you going to ⁶ at Pigeon valley for pictures? There is a great view from there.

Jamie: Oh yes, I think we are going to stop there on the way home. So, what are you going to ⁷ on the red tour?
Cansu: Well, my tour guide is collecting me at 9:30 and then we are going to stop off at Üçhisar castle to take photos. Next we are going to visit Göreme open air museum. After that we are going to ⁸ the old cave village Çavuşin. For lunch, we are going to ⁹ fish at a local restaurant and then we are going to see a pottery demonstration in Avanos.

Blake Riley's Travel Blog
Bagless in Bali!

PACKING LIGHT!

Well, I have arrived in Bali safely but unfortunately my baggage has not! I waited at the baggage reclaim for over an hour, but my bag was not there. I then went to the information desk and they told me that my bag was on its way to Paris and it is going to take a week to get it back. I have heard about this happening to other people but it's the first time I have experienced it. Unfortunately, when I got there, there was a crazy thunderstorm and it was pouring down rain. So when I was waiting for the bus, I got soaking wet! It's a bad start to my trip but I don't want to let it ruin my holiday. I only have the clothes that I'm wearing so that means I need to go shopping!! I'm staying in Bali for 2 weeks and I have a lot of activities planned. It is very hot here in Bali and my skin is very pale so I need to buy some factor 50 sun cream and a sun hat. That is the most important thing. I had four pairs of shorts and a few T-shirts in my bag so I need to buy some of those too. I am going to go surfing tomorrow so I need to buy swimming trunks and goggles. I think I am going to buy a snorkel too! I am going to meet up with a friend that I met while travelling for dinner tomorrow night so I need to buy more formal clothes too, like a shirt and trousers. Oh and I need to buy sandals too! I hope I can find some good shops here! Wish me luck!!

5. Read Blake's travel blog entry and answer the questions.

Blake'in seyahat bloğunda yazdıklarını okuyun ve soruları yanıtlayın.

1. How long did Blake wait for his bag at the airport?
2. What happened to Blake's bag?
3. Has this happened to Blake before?
4. Does Blake have any extra clothes?
5. What does Blake need to do now?
6. What are the most important things that Blake needs to buy?
7. What does Blake need to buy for surfing?
8. Why does Blake need to buy formal clothes?

6. Answer the questions with a partner.

Bir arkadaşınızla soruları cevaplayın.

1. Do you like travelling?
2. What is your favourite type of holiday?
3. What do you do on holidays?
4. Do many tourists visit your country?

7. Describe a tourist attraction you once visited. Talk about:

Ziyaret ettiğiniz bir turistik mekanı tanımlayın. Aşağıdakiler hakkında konuşun:

1. When you visited it.
2. Where it is.
3. What the weather was like.
4. Who you went with and say what about it you like the most.

12.3. Self Study

1. What are the different types of weather?

Farklı hava türleri nelerdir?

2. Look at the weather forecast for the week and write sentences using going to.

Bu haftanın hava tahminlerine bakın ve going to kullanarak cümle yazın.

TEA LEAF READING

Welcome to the fortune teller's room! Today, you are going to learn your future! Tea leaf reading is a way to tell the future by reading the tea leaves from a cup of tea. The tea leaves in the cup can tell you about the future of your life... Are you going to fall in love? Win the lottery? Get a new job?

...So, what's in your cup? What are the leaves going to say about you?

3. Amina is going to visit a tea leaf reader and is going to have her fortune told. Read the dialogue and complete the gaps with the correct form of 'going to'.

1. What do you know about calligraphy? Where have you seen it? Can you write in calligraphy?

Kaligrafi hakkında ne biliyorsunuz? Nerede gördünüz? Kaligrafi yazısı yazabilir misiniz?

Calligraphy has been an important art form in many parts of the world. The most famous calligraphers¹ are from three places: Japan, China, and the Middle East. Calligraphy was first created by Islamic artists to reflect the harmony² of nature in its geometric shapes. From the Arabic speaking world, it travelled east to Central Asia, China, and Japan, and then westward to Spain. Calligraphy has been practiced for centuries, and each culture has their own practices. For example, Arabic calligraphy is written with a special pen but Japanese and Chinese calligraphy are written with a brush. In China, artists often wrote official statements³ from the emperor in calligraphy to impress⁴ other rulers. In the Arabic speaking world, poems, religious texts and sultans' signatures⁵ were written in calligraphy to show appreciation⁶ for a text or a ruler. Calligraphy in Japan was mostly used for poems. One thing that all calligraphy has in common⁷ is that the artistry⁸ is usually more important than the message.

Melisa talks to a real estate agent

Real Estate Agent: Hi, how can I help you?

Melisa: I'm looking for a new flat.

Real Estate Agent: Okay, tell me more. Where do you want to live and how much can you spend?

Melisa: I want to live near the sea, but I also want to be close to a grocery store and my university. My budget is TL 1,500.

Real Estate Agent: No problem! I have a nice flat with a bedroom, a large salon, and one bathroom. It's a 15-minute walk to the sea and you can ride the metro to school.

Melisa: Oh, great! Does it have air conditioning? Is it central heating or can I control it?

Real Estate Agent: Of course. It has both. You can turn them on and off whenever you like.

Melisa: Excellent. I prefer to turn off the heat in the morning. What about the kitchen? Is the stove gas or electric?

Real Estate Agent: It's gas. It's a little old, but it's very easy to light.

Melisa: Oh wonderful! And how about shopping? Is there a butcher nearby?

Real Estate Agent: Yes, the butcher is two blocks away. Take the first right, and then turn left at the market. By the way, the market is very nice. They bring in fresh produce every morning.

Melisa: It sounds perfect. When can I see it?

Real Estate Agent: I have the keys in my office. We can leave now, if you have time.

Melisa: I'm a little busy today, can I come back tomorrow?

Real Estate Agent: That's no problem, why don't you come at 1:00pm.

Melisa: Sure, see you then!

Real Estate Agent: Have a good one.

Melisa: You too!

Dan: Um... Was it our anniversary?

Amanda: Yes! It was.

Dan: I'm so sorry I didn't remember, Amanda.

Amanda: Well, what do you remember?

Dan: We danced all night! The DJ played such good music...

Amanda: You were so handsome in your tuxedo.

Dan: Did you call your grandmother that night? She didn't come.

Amanda: No! I was too busy and couldn't call her. She was really angry.

Dan: But you sent her the video, didn't you?

Amanda: Yes, and she wasn't angry after that.

Mark and Pete talk about John's party

Pete: Hey Mark, I heard you didn't go to John's party last week.

Mark: Who told you that? I totally went!

Pete: Huh, I guess Jane made a mistake.

Mark: Yeah, well, I went and had a great time, but the DJ wasn't very good.

Pete: Oh, really? Our friend Paul said the DJ taught John how to spin records.

Mark: Oh, I forgot about that. They had a really good time.

Pete: What about the food? Was it good?

Mark: It was okay, I ate pizza and fries. Why couldn't you go?

Pete: I had to study. I wanted to go and my mom said she could buy my plane tickets, but I was too busy.

Mark: That's too bad. John wore the coolest new shoes. His mom bought them for him.

Pete: Yeah, he told me about them! I sent him an email last night.

Mark: Did he send you pictures? The shirt he wore was also really nice. Paul took some photos, maybe he put them online.

Pete: I didn't see them, no.

Mark: I couldn't ask him about it because I left early. But you can send him an email.

Pete: Oh, why did you leave early? Were you tired?

Mark: I didn't feel well. I thought the pizza made me sick, but after I went home, I felt a lot better.

Pete: Oh, I'm glad to hear that. Well, I've got to go. I had a late-night last night and I need to study tonight. Talk to you soon!

Mark: Okay! Bye!

Ted's Greek Holiday

Bill: Hey Ted, I haven't seen you in a while. Where have you been?

Ted: Yeah, I'm on holiday.

Bill: Oh, cool! Where did you go?

Ted: I'm in Greece. It's amazing!

Bill: Nice! I love Greece. Have you seen the Parthenon yet?

Ted: No, we're on the way there right now. I've been to Ephesus, it is very different!

Bill: Yes and no, it's bigger, but there's only one building. Have you seen the Acropolis?

Ted: Yeah, I saw it yesterday. But I've been to Aphrodisias and I liked it better there. It was less touristy.

Bill: Hmm, Good point. You've traveled a lot in Turkey, so the Greek ruins probably all look like things you've seen before.

Ted: Totally. But it hasn't been all bad.

Bill: No? Where else have you been?

Ted: No, we went to Thessaloniki last week and ate the best food!

Bill: Man, the food there is so good. Have you tried the moussaka?

Ted: No, not yet. We ate dolmas last night and they reminded me of summer nights in Izmir. It has been a great vacation. I've learned a lot of Greek, although I can't read the alphabet! I've tried, but it's all Greek to me!

Bill: Ha ha ha. Very funny..

Ted: I've learned some really good phrases to help me get around.

Bill: That's great! I hope you've taken some good pictures.

Ted: I have! Greece is really beautiful so it's been easy.

Bill: I can't wait to see them, when do you get back?

Ted: I haven't decided yet. Maybe next week?

Bill: Well, let me know when you're back.

Ted: Will do! Okay, we've just arrived at the Parthenon, gotta go!

Bill: See you later.

Ted: See ya.

Penny books a hotel room

Receptionist: Thanks for calling Orange Blossom bed and breakfast, how can I help you today?

Penny: Hi, I'd like to book a room for my summer holiday.

Receptionist: Ok, no problem. First, when are you going to arrive and how long do you want to stay?

Penny: I'm thinking about the first week of July, and we're going to stay for one week.

Receptionist: Okay, how many rooms do you want to book?

Penny: It's just my friend and I. So, I don't know, I have a few questions. How big are your rooms?

Receptionist: We have two single rooms with twin beds, or one double room with two queen beds.

Single rooms cost €20, double rooms cost €50 per night. But single rooms have shared bathrooms and double rooms have ensuite bathrooms.

Penny: Hmm, I need to talk to Jane about that. Is breakfast included?

Receptionist: Yes, that price includes breakfast.

Penny: And do you do wake up calls?

Receptionist: Of course! And we also have room service, you just have to call down to reception. They can help you with everything.

Penny: Perfect! Can they also help with daily tours?

Receptionist: Certainly. They can book a paragliding trip, jeep safaris, boat tours, whatever you need.

Penny: Oh, those sound like so much fun! What about a trip to Pamukkale or butterfly valley?

Receptionist: I'm sorry, we can't help with trips to Pamukkale, but we can help with butterfly valley.

Penny: That's fine. How far away from the city center are you?

Receptionist: Not far, but there isn't much of a city center here anyway. There is a main street with a market and a pharmacy.

Penny: That should be enough. How far from the beach are you?

Receptionist: There is a beach with umbrellas and lounge chairs 10 minutes away.

Penny: That's great! We can see the sights and then lounge on the beach and watch the sunset. We are definitely going to stay at your bed and breakfast. Jenny has just texted me and said I can book a double room. Do you do airport transfers?

Receptionist: We do. What time are your flights?

Penny: We are going to arrive at 10am and our return flight is at 4pm. What time is check in?

Receptionist: Check in is at noon, but we have a café where you can have a coffee or we can hold your bags and you can walk to the seaside and have some tea.

Penny: Oh, I'm so excited!

Receptionist: Your total for the room is going to be €350. How do you want to pay, with cash or a card?

Penny: I'll pay with my credit card.

Penny books her travel arrangements

Travel Agent: Thank you for calling Horizon Tourism, how can I help you?

Penny: Hi, I'd like to buy tickets from Istanbul to Athens.

Travel Agent: No problem, how are you going to travel? By bus, train, or plane?

Penny: That depends. How much are plane tickets?

Travel Agent: They are €150 round trip, train tickets are €50 one way, bus tickets are €25.

Penny: Hmm, Does the price for bus tickets include the return trip?

Travel Agent: No, the return ticket costs the same.

Penny: Okay, how long is the trip by bus?

Travel Agent: It takes 22 hours. There is one stop in Plovdiv and one in Thessaloniki.

Penny: That's so long! How long is the train trip?

Travel Agent: It's 13 hours. It leaves at 23:00 from the train station in the city center.

Penny: Where does the plane depart from and at what time? Oh, and is it a direct flight?

Travel Agent: It takes off from Sabiha Gökçen at 7am, and yes, it is.

Penny: Well, the plane tickets are too expensive and the departure time is awful. The bus trip takes too long, and I don't like busses anyway. I guess I'll take the train.

Podcast 1- The origins of Afrobeat

Presenter: Hello and welcome to Global beats podcast. With us today is Ode Okafor who is here to talk about Afrobeat music.

Ode: Thank you for having me!

Presenter: Thank you for being here. Now let's start with the origins of the genre. In which country did Afrobeat start?

Ode: Well, it started in the 1960s in Ghana but it is most associated with Fela Kuti who brought it to Nigeria in the 1970s.

Presenter: How can you describe the sound of Afrobeat?

Ode: It is a mix of traditional Yoruba music, with jazz and funk. It includes African percussion and vocal styles.

Presenter: What is Yoruba music?

Ode: It is the music of the Yoruba people from Nigeria, Togo and Benin.

Presenter: Let's talk more about Fela Kuti. Why did he become so popular?

Ode: He became popular because of his big personality, his musical talent and for his interest in politics. At first, he wanted to be a doctor. He studied Medicine in London in the 1960s but then he quit university and returned to Nigeria to start his musical career.

Presenter: Was he successful from the start of his musical career?

Ode: No, his band became successful a decade later in the 1970s.

Presenter: What is your favourite song by Fela Kuti?

Ode: I love all of his music but my favourite song is Gentleman from 1975. The song lasts for 14 minutes!

Presenter: Wow, that is very long! Is his music still popular today?

Ode: Absolutely. Fela Kuti has influenced many artists around the world and the influence of Afrobeat music can be seen in much of the Afrobeat music we hear today.

Presenter: Thank you Ode.

Podcast 2- EDM (Electronic Dance Music)

Presenter: Today we are talking to Giles Stone about electronic dance music and where it started. Welcome to the podcast Giles!

Giles: Thank you, it's great to be here.

Presenter: First of all Giles, what is electronic dance music?

Giles: Well, electronic dance music, or EDM, includes different types of dance music genres such as trance, dubstep, techno and house music.

Presenter: How is this music made?

Giles: Well, it is usually made using some sort of electronic equipment such as synthesizers and drum machines. These days it can be made on computers using music production software such as Ableton.

Presenter: So anyone can make this music on their computer?

Giles: Well, anyone can try, but it does take some skill and talent to make it sound good!

Presenter: Haha, OK! So then, where did this music come from?

Giles: Well many people say that Delia Derbyshire was the first electronic music producer. She made the 'Dr Who' theme in the 1960s. Then in the 1970s with the start of disco music, the first wave of dance music began.

Presenter: What was disco music?

Giles: It included funk, soul and jazz with electronic sounds. Clubs and DJs became more popular after the start of disco music.

Presenter: So who were popular electronic artists then?

Giles: Well Kraftwerk were one of the first groups to play electro and house music using synthesizers and drum machines.

Presenter: What about the 80s and 90s?

Giles: EDM was very popular in the 90s in particular in Germany and the UK.

Presenter: When did EDM become popular in America?
